Governor Proclaims Public Works Week in North Dakota

BISMARCK, N.D. – Gov. Jack Dalrymple has proclaimed May 19 through 25, 2013, as Public Works Week in North Dakota.

Public Works Week is observed annually to celebrate the contributions of public works professionals, including those who manage community water, sewer, public transportation, and refuse-removal systems, as well as those who are responsible for maintaining public buildings and grounds.

“We value our communities and the role public works professionals play in keeping them safe and functioning smoothly,” said Chuck Abel, executive secretary for the North Dakota Chapter of the American Public Works Association. “Public works professionals maintain and improve the systems and services vital to a community’s health, safety and comfort.”

For more information about Public Works Week, contact Chuck Abel, at 701.328.5207.

PROCLAMATION
PUBLIC WORKS WEEK
May 19-25, 2013

WHEREAS, public works infrastructure, facilities and services are of vital importance to the health, safety and well-being of the people of North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, it is important for the citizens and civic leaders of this state to gain knowledge of and to maintain a progressive interest in the public works needs and programs of their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, public works professionals, engineers and administrators are responsible for and must design, build, operate and maintain the transportation, water supply, sewage and refuse disposal systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential to serving our citizens; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota's public works professionals, engineers and administrators should be recognized for their dedication and contributions to the growth, development and stability of our state.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim May 19-25, 2013, PUBLIC WORKS WEEK in the state of North Dakota.

Jack Dalrymple
Governor
